48 St Johns Terrace Willunga South SA

3 2 3

- Inspections by appointment only -

This amazing property has been architecturally designed and custom built by the current and original owners in 2016. It is located on the fringe of the Willunga township, set on an elevated 1,200m2 allotment offering sensational views over iconic local vineyards and stretch all the way to the ocean in the distance which is simply breath-taking.

The home offers a spacious split level layout with a light filled breezeway that connects the separate living areas. As soon as you enter this home, you can immediately feel the ambiance and can quickly appreciate that this home is something special. As you step down to the lower level, you'll love the large open plan living room that features
