9 Nicole Street Christies Beach SA

2  1

Built in 1960 on a corner block this funky little home is looking for someone new to show it some love. Looking for a future holiday house only one street from the beach? Or perhaps you'd like to knock it down and build your dream home.

There's lots of quirky features here you'll love. The classic 1960's beach shack vibe is achieved with timber ceilings, exposed beams, a big open plan living area and versatile floorplan. Once upon a time the main bedroom was split into two, and there's a possibility of easily converting it back, giving this home 3 beds in total.

There's a big kitchen, spacious bathroom and lots of little extras here such as roller shutters to the front windows,
