58 Endeavour Drive Seaford Rise SA

3 1 1

This property is nestled amongst other quality homes and offers a good street appeal. It is located with easy access to walking/bike trails that lead directly down to the coast, or to nearby shops, schools and transport options making this property suitable for a range of different buyers.

At the front of the property there is an easy care front garden with a patch of lawn and a couple of mature trees. There is a single garage accessed via a roller door under the main roof for secure off street parking that also offers direct and private entry into the home.

The separate tiled entrance flows into the passageway the leads past the good sized main bedroom that is located at the front of the home and comes with a large walk-in robe
