This exceptionally well maintained and presented property is located in a fantastic position. Bassett Street is a quiet and very private Cul-De-Sac that overlooks an adjacent gum studded reserve with a winter creek with the added benefit of tennis courts available if desired.

This location and property could be ideal for a wide range of buyers as it's also conveniently located only a short stroll from the main street of Willunga that offers a number of cafes and local shops and it's not far from a number of schooling options too making it ideal for young families.
