If you are needing a spacious home to accommodate a large or perhaps a blended family, then this extremely large home could be ideal and should be worth some serious consideration...

Located on a large 826m2 allotment with easy access to schools, shops and transport options. The home was originally built in the 1980's and has benefitted from tasteful updates and renovations since. On the lower level there is a separate entrance that flows through and gives access to the spacious dining and main living area that has a built-in bar and comes with dual ceiling fans. There is
