Please contact David Hams from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

This property is simply stunning both inside and out. From the moment you arrive and make your way over the slate footbridge and winter creek to the path that leads up to the front door, you can immediately feel and appreciate that this home is something special.

Custom designed and built by the current and original owners, and meticulously maintained and presented, this entire property boasts an overall appeal and soul that really does need to be felt in person to truly appreciate. Inspections are available by appointment only and are highly recommended.
