Please contact David Hams from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

Nestled on the outskirts of Willunga between both the Willunga and McLaren Vale townships, this property offers a much sort after lifestyle whilst being conveniently located with easy access to shops, schools and not far to the coast either.

Boasting approximately 7 acres of flat usable land that has been fenced into several paddocks with a variety of mature trees dotted throughout. There is a large front paddock and another good sized paddock next to the home. There are a couple of holding paddocks, a round yard and a fruit tree orchard.
