Please contact David Hams from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

Located within easy and convenient access to schools, shops and public transport options, this property offers modern living that could be ideal for a range of different buyers.

Built in 2015, this townhouse boasts a rendered façade and is located opposite a large open reserve. The front courtyard is fully fenced making it both private and secure. The glass sliding doors provide access into the home whilst at the same time frame a nice outlook of the adjacent reserve over the road.
