5 Truscott Avenue SEACOMBE HEIGHTS SA

4 2 2

Purposely built to take advantage of sweeping views of Adelaide and the plains, this spacious 4 bedroom home offers balconies, decking and entertaining areas to sit and watch the world go by.

The home was extended in 2000 by its current owner to double its original size with an upstairs addition which offers 2 bedrooms, a full bathroom and a huge entertaining room. Designed for 'play time', the entertaining room is currently set up with a snooker table, good sized screen for the home theatre, a bar and sliding door access to the outstanding timber decking and balconies.

For the occasions that you are downstairs, the elevated position of the home still provides picturesque views from the formal lounge, kitchen or the generous master bedroom.
