Much loved and very well cared for, this completely original character home which was built around 1935, will delight the most fastidious of buyers and rarely have we seen such a wonderful example of a bye gone era, with outstanding craftsmanship in home building throughout.

Set among many other character homes including Austerity, Art Deco and Bungalows, this nicely presented original property is an absolute credit to the owners and offers a large backyard with original lockup drive thru garage and second garage plus rear verandah.

Built from solid brick, featuring very high ceilings, lovely
