3  2

Unique in many ways. Lovely updated original home with an adjoining Teenage retreat or a home for the extended family.

Original home has two large bedrooms both with polished floors, grand lounge room with fireplace and ornate ceilings opening to the dining room and good size kitchen.

Sharing a common wall is the separate unit which would make an idea living space for the extended parents or a teenagers living quarters maybe even a rental income from your home.

Or you may use the already approved plans to subdivide the 2 homes into two properties on individual titles.
