top location, great value and loads of potential, this established brick home has an updated fully tiled bathroom, good size traditional kitchen meals, a separate lounge room plus dining area, rear verandah with lovely big north facing backyard, utility room or third bedroom & lockup garage plus carport.

certainly a good home for those with an eye to investment and the buyer looking to secure a home that also offers additional potential for new development, subject to the usual consents and the land has a frontage of 19.2m and is zoned R 12 residential.
