This surprisingly large family home located in the sought after and desired Carews Fields estate is a must see and would be an ideal choice for any growing family upsizing or astute first home buyer looking to make a wise decision. This magnificently appointed custom built home has been with the original owners who built the property - boasting a flexible floor plan of up to five large bedrooms, currently setup as three bedrooms with a home office and a guest room - it is no surprise that this substantial 5 bedroom delight has been tightly held since its completion.
