Located on a well-established street in close proximity to Southgate Square is this beautifully renovated three bed, one bath home. With undeniable street appeal, a rumpus room to the rear of the property and a spacious double carport, this home is absolutely perfect for downsizers, first home buyers and investors alike.

During their time in the property, the owners have graciously updated and renovated the home to keep up with modern trends. For the benefit of the purchaser, the ducted evaporative air-conditioning and gas instantaneous unit have been replaced in the last year, the shed to the rear of the property has been converted into a rumpus room, the property has been extended to the side to host a home office/fourth bedroom and a double carport has been
