Positioned on one of the larger blocks in the highly renowned and sought-after suburb of Novar Gardens is this delightful, three bedroom family home. With undeniable elegance, an incredible number of renovations and updates and drive through access with space to park a caravan or boat, there is absolutely no doubt that this property won't be on the market for long.

During their time in the home, the current owners have undertaken a considerable number of upgrades to keep up with modern trends. The entire kitchen has been renovated to perfection, the carpet in the lounge and master have
