Located on a quiet and peaceful road that runs beside the beautiful Christies Creek is this extraordinary four bed, two bath home. With a number of modern updates and additions, two separate living areas, an impressive outdoor entertaining area and a very versatile floorplan, this property is absolutely perfect for the growing family and astute investors alike.

As you enter the home you are greeted with the formal living area, which features two large front-facing windows allowing an abundance of natural light to spill into the area, a gas heater as well as a circular stairway to the parents retreat on the upper level. The upper floor is home to bedroom 4 as well as an additional living area which would act as the perfect parents retreat.
