This beautifully presented family home set in a fantastic location is a must see and is sure to impress.

A spacious open plan layout that includes a dining and living area, perfect for the growing family. Located at the rear of the home and sits alongside the functional kitchen that is well equipped and offers everything you would expect in a quality home like this. With three generously sized bedrooms, master with large built in robe, a family sized bathroom with bath, separate toilet and a laundry with outside access, this home has everything you need to just move in and enjoy. For year round comfort the home is equipped with reverse cycle air conditioning and heating.
