This charming two bedroom home is a must see and offers low maintenance living in a fantastic location.

Stepping inside through the double timber front doors the spacious entry leads to the living room that offers great views over the enclosed tranquil front garden. With two generously sized bedrooms and an extra retreat, study or nursery, all with easy access to the family bathroom fitted with bath, this home is sure to impress. The eat in kitchen offers great bench top space and storage options and is fitted with a gas stove. For year round comfort the home is fitted with reverse cycle heating and cooling and a combustion heater in the living room.
