Situated on a large allotment with a wide frontage this 4 bedroom family home offers plenty of potential for future development or to simply make it your own.

Stepping inside you will find polished timber floors throughout and the versatility of space on offer. The formal lounge and dining area provides a fantastic space to relax with the family and is kept comfortable with heating and ceiling fans. The large family room (which is currently disposed as a 4th bedroom) also has a separate heater and is that extra versatile space that you will love.
