This four bedroom family home offers a neutral decor throughout and is sure to have everything the growing family needs, including two living areas and a sparkling in ground swimming pool.

The welcoming entrance leads to the well appointed light and airy open plan living and dining area. Off the dining area sliding doors lead out to the rumpus room with built in bar, perfect for family that needs extra space, or working from home. The modernised kitchen offers plenty of cupboard and bench space and is well equipped with everything you would expect in a quality family home including a walk in pantry, dishwasher and a convenient meals area for the morning rush.
