This beautifully presented family home set in a fantastic location is a must see and is sure to impress.

Built in 2004 the home offers a spacious open plan layout that includes two separate living areas, perfect for the growing family. The main living area is at the rear of the home and sits alongside the functional kitchen that is well equipped and offers everything you would expect in a quality home like this including a dishwasher. With three generously sized bedrooms, all with robes and the master with walk in and en suite, a family sized three way bathroom, separate toilet and a laundry with outside access this home has everything you need to just move in and enjoy. For year round comfort the home is fitted with ducted air conditioning and gas heating.
