Please call Craig Thomson for more information.

This generous unit has a good floor plan, set in a quiet street in a quality group and offers a great outdoor area complete with solar panels.

Inside greets you with a large open plan living/dining leading through to a well equipped spacious kitchen. The two bedrooms are a good size, both with built in robes. The family bathroom has a separate toilet for convenience and a laundry leads out onto the back yard.

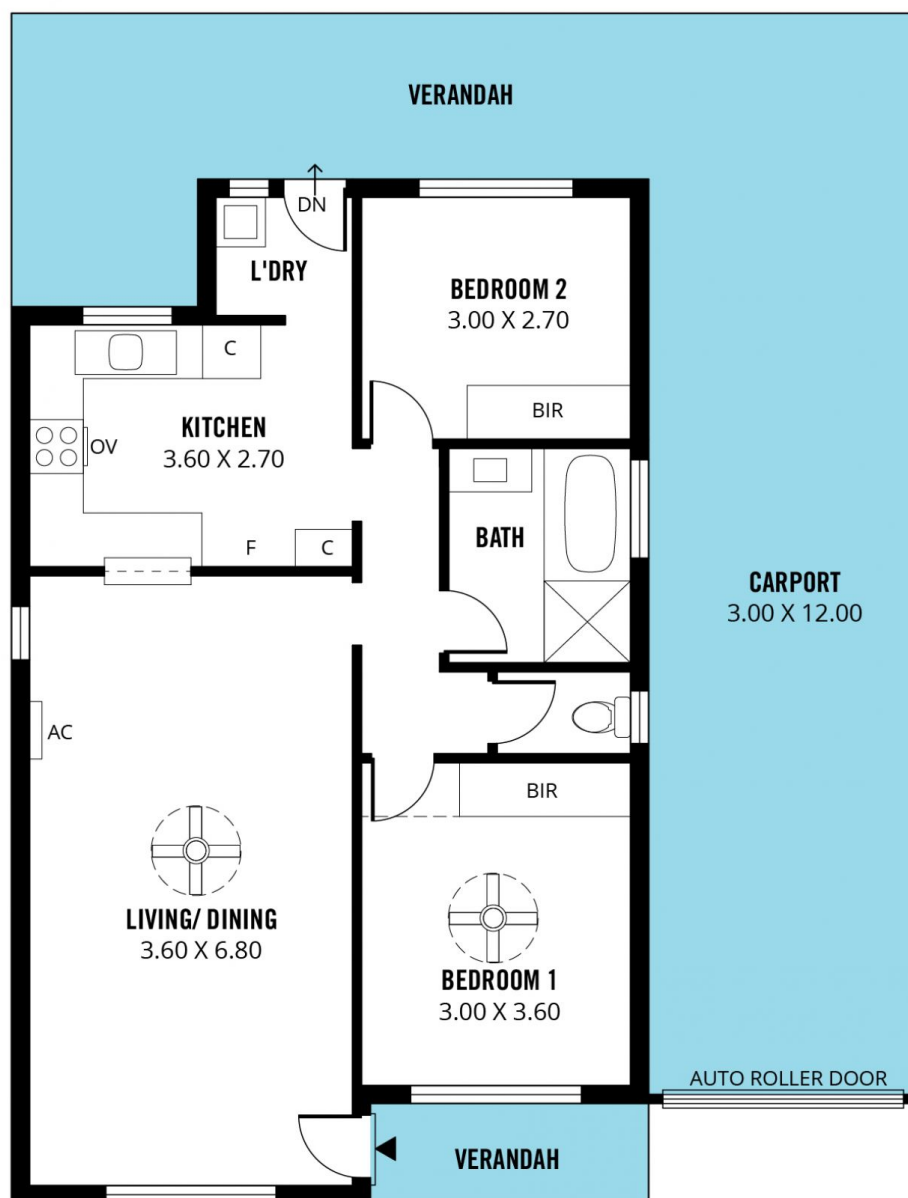

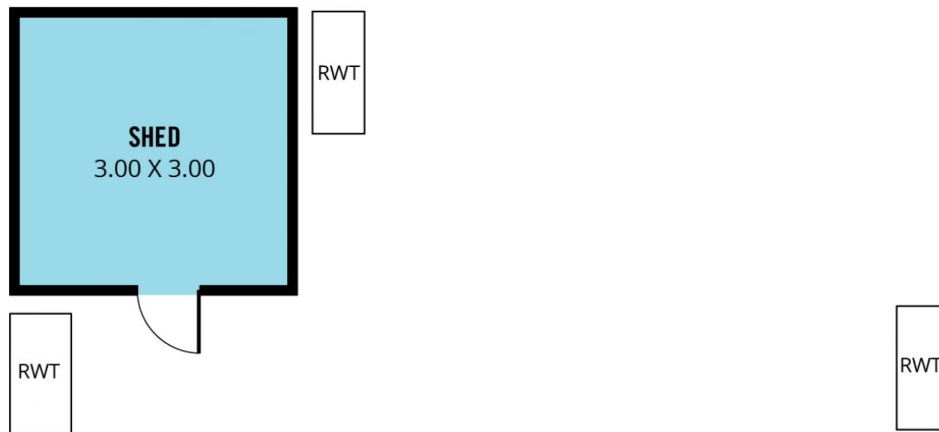

The outside has an undercover area in which to relax and entertain while the easy care yard looks after itself. There is a double length car port, with automatic roller door and shed for storage plus visitor parking at the front of the
