Boasting classic 60's architecture and flare this family home was designed and built to absorb the panoramic views. If the walls could talk they would tell a storey or two, now it is time for you to write a new chapter.

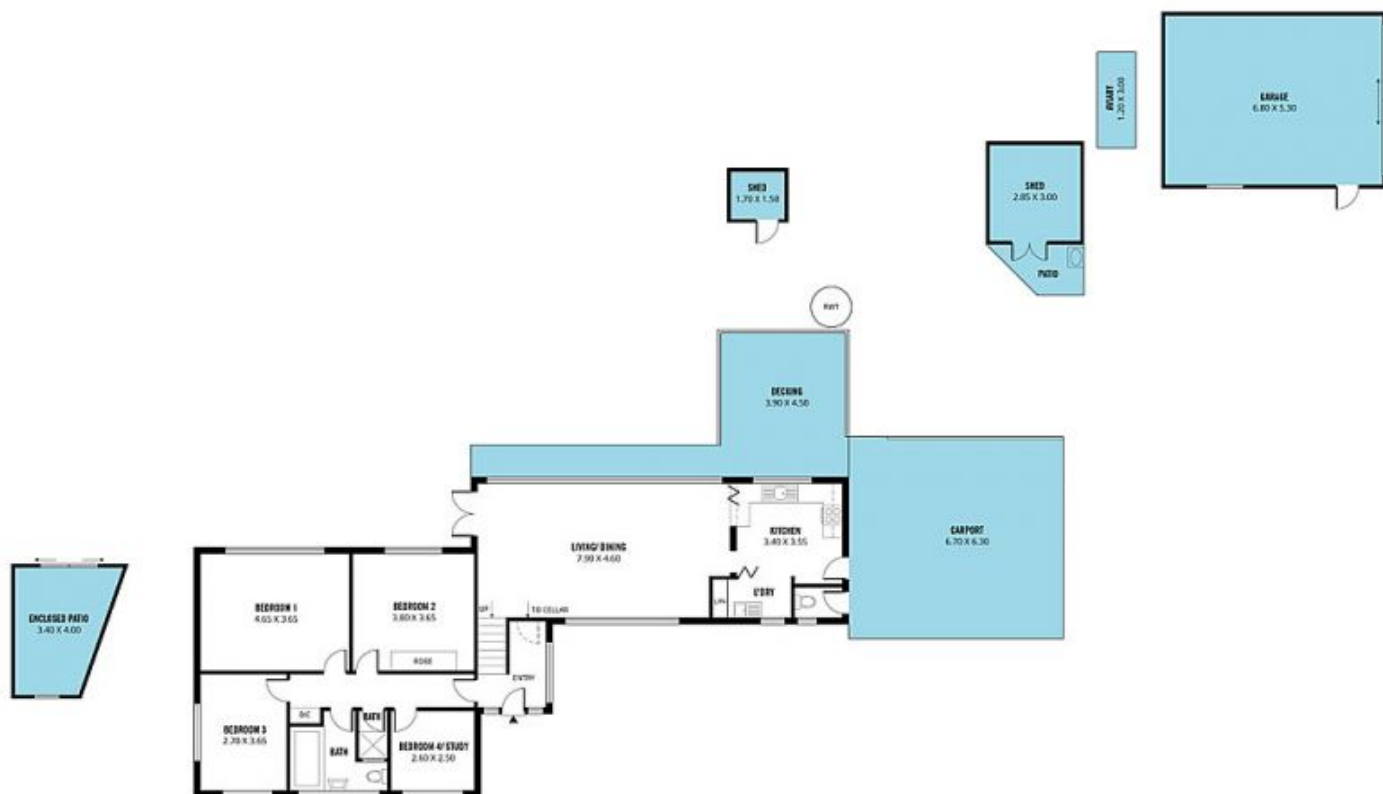

This family home sits on over 1250m² of land, inside you will find a large living/dining area with cellar, the functional kitchen is a good space and includes a servery to the dining room and access to a double carport and laundry. The four bedrooms are well sized and have access to the
