Please contact Josh Morrison from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

This charming federation home minutes to the sandy beaches of Glenelg has been stylishly updated, nestled privately in its own haven and is picture perfect with its character features.

As it so often is with homes of this era, the hall is long and wide with soaring ornate 12-foot ceilings. All three bedrooms are very generous in size and full to the brim with natural light. The front room has the versatility to be used as a bedroom or additional living area. A newly added loft provides extra storage options and the stylish main bathroom offers quality wall and floor tiling, freestanding
