Please contact Josh Morrison from Magain Real Estate for all your property advice.

Nestled in the serene landscape of Seaview Downs, this double brick four bedroom home built in 1970 has been well cared for and is ready for it's next chapter. Sitting on a 666sqm (approx.) allotment offering views of the ocean, this home provides a unique opportunity for the growing family or those looking to add to their investment portfolio.

Step inside to a home that assures comfort with floorboards and slate floors paving the way while sunlight pours through large character stain glass windows. The huge living/dining opens through double doors and will be the delight of this home, an ideal spot to entertain and unwind.
