You don't want to miss an opportunity this rare! A blank canvas on 1,150sqm of land with 40 metre frontage (approx), this property is a developers dream or the perfect shell for a historian wanting to restore it to its former glory. In a prime location, you are close to the boutiques and cafes on King William Road, the shopping at Mitcham Square and public transport to make a trip into the city. Prestigious schools such as, Unley, Mitcham Girls, Scotch College and Mercedes College are also close by.

In its current state this property could do with some tender loving care. For those looking to sink their teeth into a renovation this 1950's colonial home offers 3 bedrooms
