You could not find a more magical setting in heart of the hills. Backing onto Brown Hill Creek and with an entrance to Belair National Park just metres away, this is the perfect home for the person who likes adventure and outdoors. The surrounding scenery is endless and the places to explore are boundless. There are many creeks nearby to explore with the kids or family pet. Catch a frog or two or race boats down the stream whilst enjoying a nice picnic lunch on the bank of the creek. You have the perfect balance of an outback escape with the convenience of modern day luxuries nearby.

Stepping onto the property, you are sitting on a grand
