- thoughtfully designed throughout
- quality fixtures and fittings
- full of added features

This sophisticated family home set in a tranquil estate is sure to impress the whole family! Perfectly located, a thriving park is right down the street and will entertain the kids for hours after school. With a number of good quality schools within driving distance you are spoilt for choice! Between Main South Road and the Expressway, a trip in either direction has never been more convenient and with public transport approximately a short walk away you can comfortably leave the car at home. I think you'll agree the whole family has been catered for with this beautiful family home.
