19 Russell Avenue SEACOMBE GARDENS SA

4 2 2

You will lose your heart to this charming 1950's built cottage style home. From your first step into the spacious light filled living and dining room with stunning polished floors you will feel right at home. The standout feature of this home is the incredible kitchen which features seamless antique cabinetry and island bench. The large window doubles as a servery out to the decked entertaining area which is framed with vines and leads to a landscaped garden with plenty of space to move. Quality plantation shutters grace each window to flood the house with natural light.

Two bedrooms at the front of the home both have ceiling fans and share the immaculately renovated bathroom with quality vintage vanity and luxurious open shower. Down the
