This sophisticated family home set in a tranquil estate is sure to impress the whole family! Perfectly located, a thriving park is right down the street and will entertain the kids for hours after school. With a number of good quality schools within driving distance you are spoilt for choice! Between Main South Road and the Expressway, a trip in either direction has never been more convenient and with public transport approximately a short walk away you can comfortably leave the car at home. I think you'll agree the whole family has been catered for with this beautiful family home.

From the second you step onto this property you'll feel right at home with its beautifully landscaped gardens. Moving inside the formal lounge greets you on the left, which is the
