Imagine living with the reserve as your backdrop, walking trails to blissfully stroll along are just down the road, all with nothing but the wandering hillside of the Sturt Gorge and blue skies at your back door. The peace and tranquillity of this beautiful home are abundantly clear. You may feel far from civilisation but in fact public transport is a mere 500m away and an easy trip into town.

This colonial style home oozes street appeal and is sure to catch your eye! From the detailed verandah, hexagon windows and designed glass at our front door, you are sure to be charmed by this one! Stepping inside the property is a formal entry way with a brick arch leading you to plenty of
