Located just opposite a beautiful reserve with a soccer club attached, this neat townhouse in the highly sought after suburb of Ferryden Park is sure to appeal. Located less than 10km from the CBD, with great local schools around and Churchill Shopping Centre only a short drive, the location really does tick the boxes.

Entering the modern townhouse you are greeted downstairs with a huge family room - plenty of room to entertain your family and friends. The family room flows into the equally impressive dining space and adjacent to that is the well appointed kitchen - complete with all the required appliances including gas cooktop and dishwasher.
