Located in the highly sought after suburb of Aberfoyle Park, this three bedroom family home with two living areas will not last on the market long. Only a short walk from The Hub Shopping Centre, Aberfoyle Park High School and an array of private colleges available, buses that take you into the CBD in no time and a short drive either into the hills or the southern beaches, this location is sure to please.

Approaching the home you will appreciate the abundance of off street parking, with this property offering both a lock up garage and undercover parking. Heading inside you find the beautifully tiled porcelain floors, that lead you through the formal I-shaped lounge and dining. The kitchen, while
