Please call Craig Thomson for more information.

located on a quiet street but close enough to main south road this bigger 3 bedroom home is an ideal first starter or investment. This home has had some recent additions including a recent complete renovation to the kitchen area & the addition of the floorboards upgrade.

The real benefits to this property is the large land size with side access through to the shed to secure all the important valuables & secondly this one stands above the rest given it has a second living area for those with a family or even just have a separate space to entertain and relax in.

The bathroom has also had some improvements done
