Ideally located to within walking distance to Southgate Square, this 2019 Distinctive Homes built home is the one to see this weekend.

As you enter the home it becomes very apparent that there has been a lot of thought and care in the design, with a north facing master bedroom complete with a beautifully styled en-suite and walk in robe.

Moving through the home you will notice the first of two living areas which is perfect for the parents to have their own space or a just a second area to relax.
