Located in the ever popular suburb of Seacombe Gardens, this modern courtyard home is sure to appeal to first home buyers, investors and downsizers alike. Seaview High School is just across the road making it super easy for the kids to get to school, and Stella Maris is just down the road for your junior school requirements. Westfield Marion is only a short drive for all your shopping needs, and public transport is readily available with bus exchanges and train stations nearby. The beautiful beach and cafe lifestyle of Brighton is also only a five minute drive - there really is so much to love about this location!

As you approach the home you will appreciate the security
