This charming house is on a big corner block with a granny flat that has its own entrance and carport.

Going in through the front door of the main house and into the entranceway -to the left takes you to the carpeted lounge with a wood heater, just the thing for the cold nights. Through into the separate dining room and on to the kitchen. The bay window in the kitchen looks out to the outdoor entertainment area. The 3 bedrooms in main house area have built in wardrobes and overhead fans. All windows have a lovely outlook to the garden.

The Granny flat/teenage retreat is fully carpeted and has a door from the main house. The lounge is a good size with a
