Enjoy an enviable lifestyle in this architecturally designed and beautifully presented home. Within walking distance to the historic township of Port Noarlunga with cafes, restaurants and curio shops. The beautiful beach, jetty, reef and river mouth are just moments away, making you feel like you're on holidays all year round.

The current owners have cleverly configured the property for their comfort and for their parents, allowing different generations to share accommodation but with versatility that gives each family their own space and lifestyle. This creates a lot of other opportunities for this home, convert the ground level to create a large family home with children's bedrooms and family room downstairs, perhaps teenage or older children that are still studying will benefit
