With gum trees as a backdrop and an abundance of bird life this property has a well established and maintained garden at the front. The water bill is set at an established amount for the tenant and the landlord pays anything over this for the garden. Privacy is assured for the tenants and the house underwent major renovations approximately 3 years ago. The near new modern kitchen with gas cooking, dishwasher and abundance of storage space throughout make this a comfortable home. Split systems throughout keeps you comfortable all year round. There is a small private rear courtyard, and a double garage leading directly to premises.

The bus stop is close, with Flinders University and the
