Opportunity waits for a developer or investor to purchase a property on a large block of some 720sqm. Great location close to public transport and shops, this property would respond especially well to some updating and the future rewards could be significant.

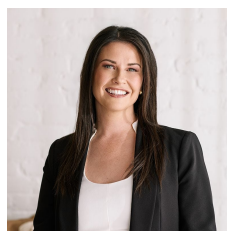

The house consists of two spacious living areas, a front formal lounge with built in bar, three well sized bedrooms, separate toilet and clean bathroom. The kitchen is neat and tidy and is located next to the casual meals area.

The rear yard has a huge enclosed under cover entertaining area with second toilet, small garden area which offers fantastic future upgrading potential and double garage.

This is one not to miss with unimaginable potential.
