Please contact Stuart Costello for viewing times.

Located conveniently between the city and the sea, this fantastic home is not going to be around for long. The locals will tell you that Camden park is the best kept secret in Adelaide, and being so close to great shopping centres with fantastic public transport options, close to the airport and within throwing distance of some quality schools such as Immanuel College and Plympton International College, 49A Curzon Street will make a fantastic first home, investment choice or downsizing opportunity.

Built circa 1999, there is plenty to love about this home. The master bedroom is quite spacious, lets in an abundance of natural light and has an ensuite. Bedrooms 2 & 3 are both of decent size and all bedrooms are equipped with built ins. The heart of the home, the kitchen, overlooks
