This beautifully renovated unit is absolutely immaculate, its a true credit to the current owners. Its been extremely well maintained and well loved. What a perfect position not only close to public transport, schools, shops and a short drive to the city but this unit is overlooking the Sturt River with walking/cycling trails as well.

This unit would be ideal for someone looking to downsize and enjoy the easy care, low maintenance lifestyle without the hassle and financial stress of a retirement village.

As you enter the home the natural light streams through the front facing windows overlooking picturesque tree lined
