This large home on a corner block offers everything you need for your family to grow.

Inside has been beautifully renovated and offers a flexible floor plan, with four bedrooms and large living, kitchen and dining. The fourth bedroom could easily be used as a second formal living area. The modern kitchen is at the hub of the home, boasting plenty of storage, gas hob, inbuilt Puratap and a movable central island/breakfast bar. With features such as high ceilings, attic storage, slate floors and original fire places this updated property appeals to the modern buyer whilst also retaining its period character. Every room offers oodles of space and a light and airy feel.

Outside you have a fully fenced front and back yard, along with front verandah and undercover entertaining accessed
