Can you picture your family living here? This loved family home ticks all the boxes: comfort, convenience, and character.

There are two spacious and separate living areas creating space for the kids to do their thing, while you relax in the other. Host your dinner parties with friends in the separate spacious dining room or snuggle up in the front lounge in front of the cosy fire in the cold winter months.

The functional kitchen is central to the home with endless possibilities for future renovations to make it yours own. A second family living/sunroom room is a great space to sit in the sun whilst looking out to the luscious green gardens.

Three well sized bedrooms all including built in wardrobes and fans for added convenience with a main bathroom and
