This two storey family home with its versatile floor plan is sure to suit.

Downstairs the large room sizes give that feeling of space and with formal and informal living all bases are covered.

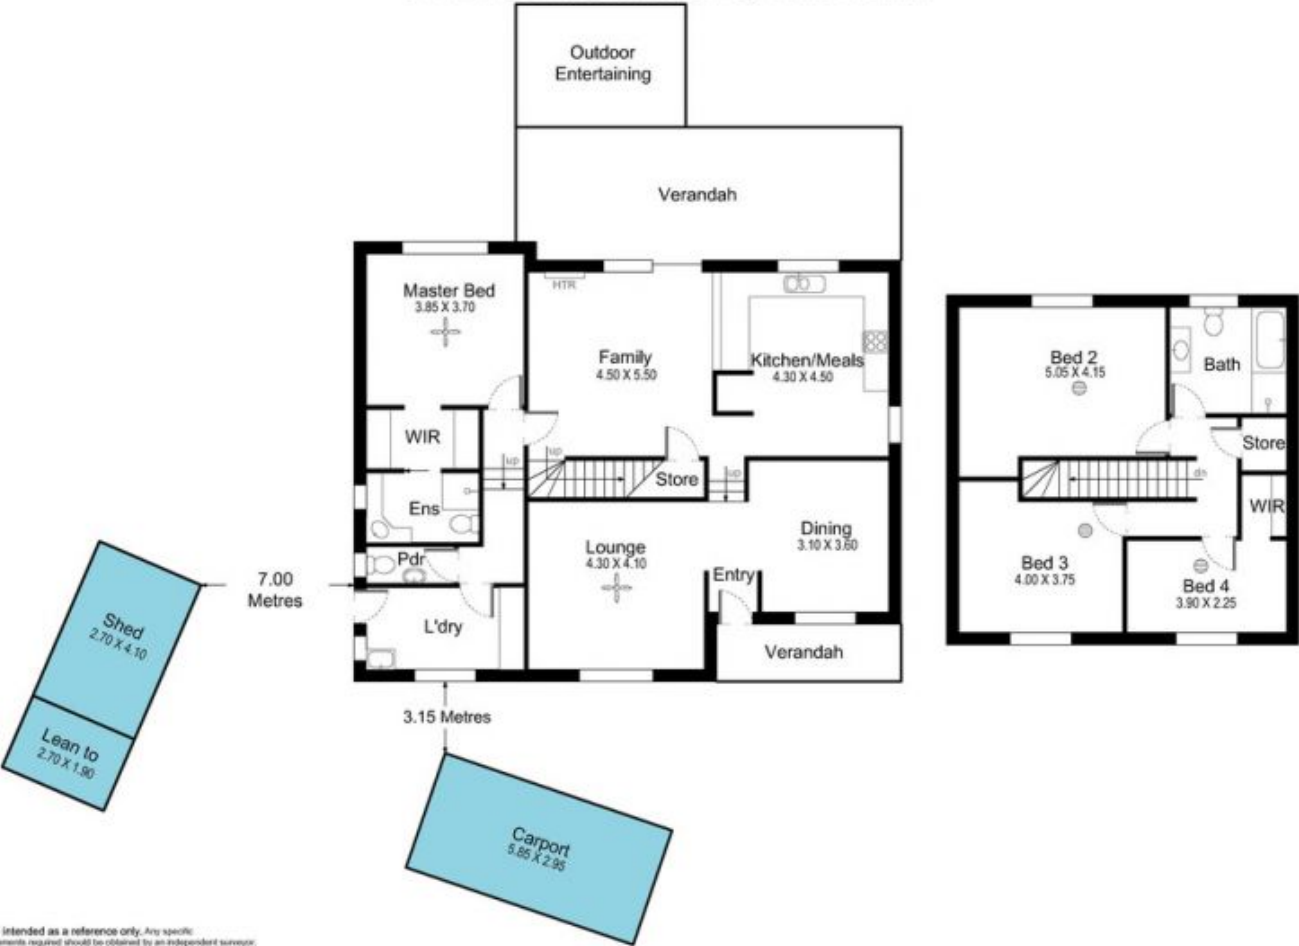

The formal lounge and separate dining are positioned at the front of the home upon entry and to the rear you will find the kitchen/meals area. The adjacent family room leads out onto a verandah where you can imagine yourself relaxing after a hard day while you pour yourself a glass of wine from the built in bar and watch the sunset. The elevated outdoor entertaining with cafe blinds gives that country outlook where you can sit and enjoy while the automatic watering system takes care of the garden.

The master bedroom has a generous walk through robe
