Are you looking for your first home or an ideal investment? If so, then I urge you to take a look at this much loved and immaculate home.

Providing three generous size bedrooms, two with handy built in robes and multiple living areas for the family or couple in need of space. The spacious lounge upon entry is the ideal place to come together and watch a movie whilst the open plan kitchen and meals area creates the space to bring the family together at the end of a long day. You can even steal away with a cuppa into the sunroom in the early mornings or evenings to bask in the glorious sunshine.

Outside is sure to impress - what better way to spend your summer days than splashing around in your very own inground pool! Enjoy the shade under the pergola and of
