Contact Stuart Costello for viewing times.

Private, secure and set back from the road, this Torrens Titled Marshall Thompson built home features a formal lounge room and spacious rear open plan living and dining.

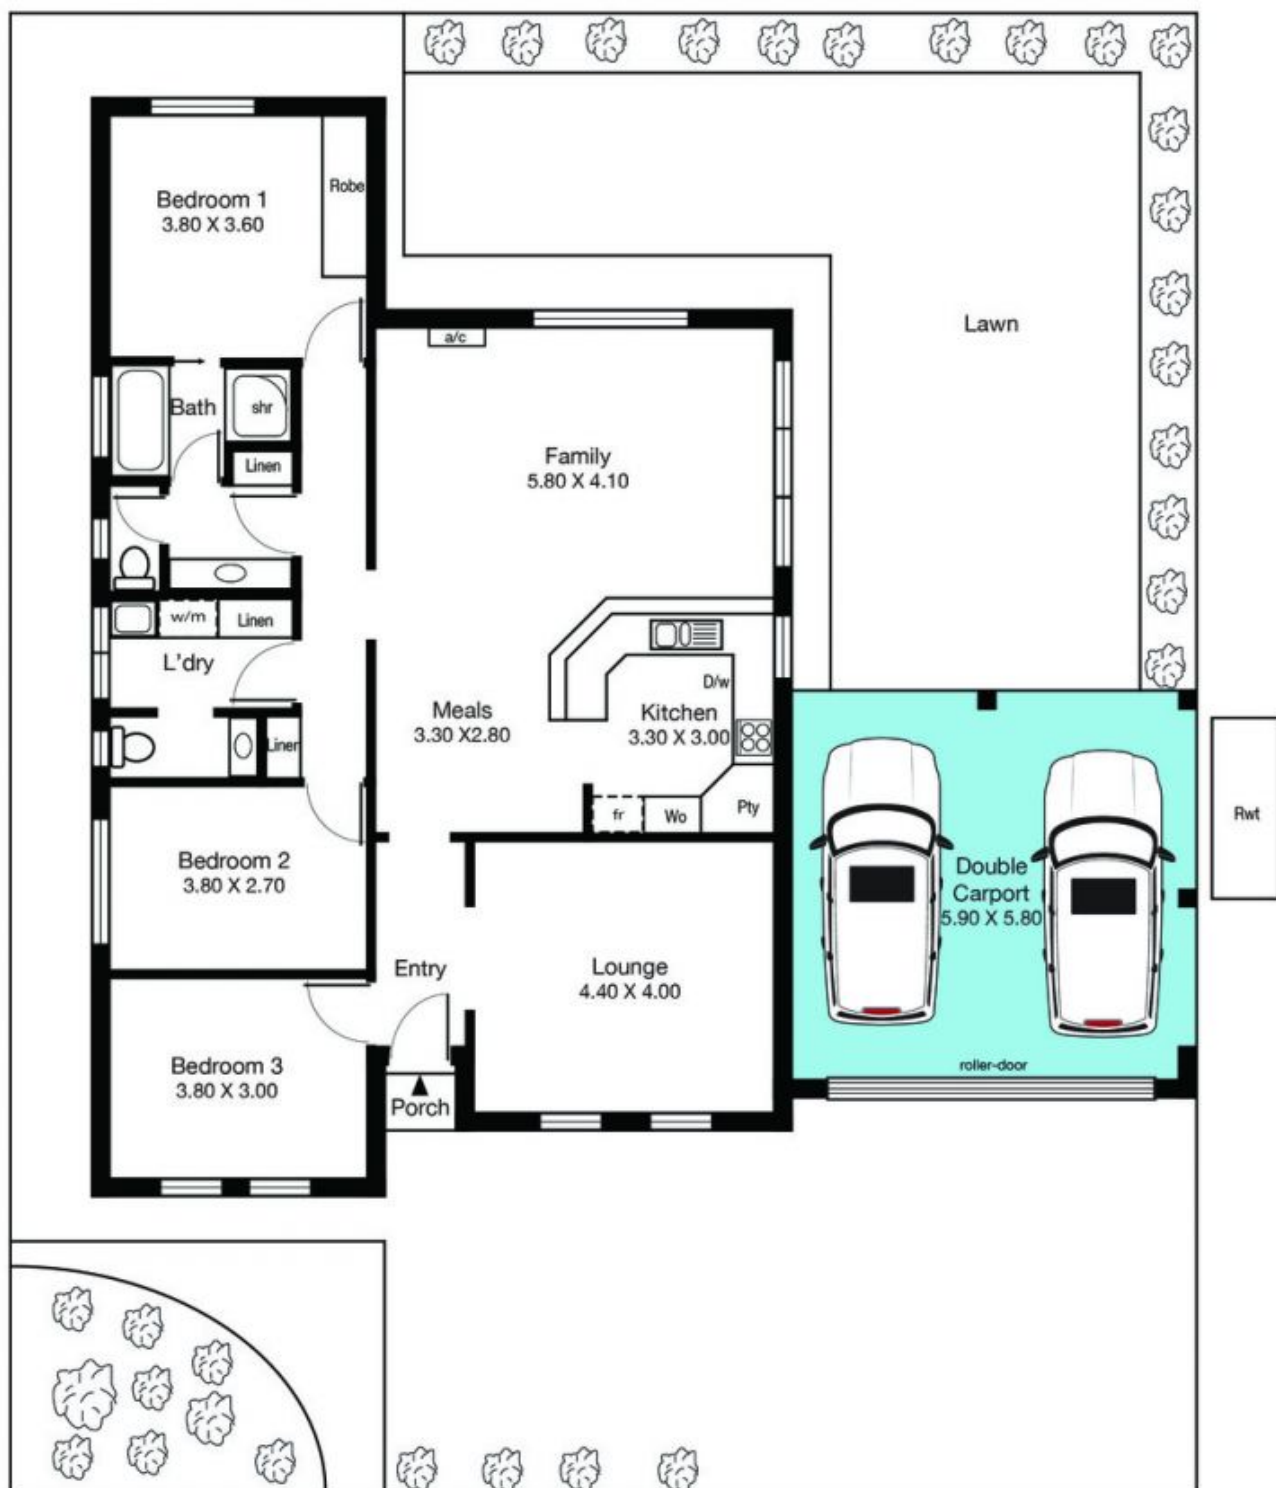

Adjacent is a well appointed kitchen featuring quality appliances, including dishwasher and an abundance of bench and cupboard space.

All three bedrooms are generous with the master offering built in robes and en-suite access to the full sized three way bathroom. There is also a second toilet for convenience plus a large laundry.

Glass sliding doors from the living area give easy access to the low maintenance rear yard where you can relax and entertain at the end of a hard week. A double carport and additional parking for van or trailer have all bases covered.
