This circa 1900 sandstone villa has been beautifully renovated and ready to be enjoyed.

The home comprises of four large bedrooms, which lead off the grand hallway, each with feature fireplaces and high ornate ceilings. The lounge and dining room are perfectly situated at the rear of the property. The stunning Baltic open plan timber kitchen with dishwasher and double fridge space is a delight to cook in and the federation style bathroom with claw foot bath just adds to the originality.

The large laundry has oodles of storage and the separate study/office has french doors leading out to the extensive decked entertaining area with plenty of room to entertain family and friends, while sitting back and enjoying a drink or two.
