Contact Stuart Costello for viewing times.

This beautiful courtyard home is perfect for those looking to buy their first home, downsize or invest.

Inside you will get an instant feeling of space with its open plan living and dining plus functional kitchen offering plenty of cupboard space.

The three bedrooms are a generous size, the master with built in robes. The bathroom is modern with neutral tones and is ideally located for all bedrooms.

Outside there is room to entertain your friends and family enjoying a glass of wine on a summers evening while the neat, low maintenance takes care of itself.

The double length car port gives plenty of space for secure parking behind a roller door.

Set in a great location, close to the city and award winning
