Contact Stuart Costello for viewing times.

This beautifully presented secluded family home, in a sought after part of Woodcroft, offers privacy, a great floor plan and grand feel as soon as you walk in.

Inside to the left of the home are the four bedrooms, all a good size, two with built in robes and the master with walk in robe and en suite. The living/dining areas offer both informal and formal for when you want to hold those extra special dinner parties, serving vegetables from your own organic vegetable garden. The kitchen is positioned perfectly between both dining areas and is well equipped with new modern appliances and a walk in pantry.

Outside there is a double garage with rear roller door and drive through access, plus a huge shed with roller door access. There is also another partitioned shed, with power,
